

Presently I have to reference on at least THREE different news agencies to get a shred of accuracy about any one story, and then go into an underground or overseas resource via the internet if the details aren't satisfactorily complete.

DICTATORSHIPS begin with thought manipulation, by controlling the flow of information, i.e., the news and entertainment media.

Don't let anti-competitive policies work against the public interest.

Thank you.